I would describe my perfect day as being able to wake up at anytime in the day, preferably around 10 to 11 o'clock. Head to school, not get in trouble for being last. Say "Good Morning!" to everyone I meet and they say it back to me. Have no homework due and no homework assigned. Being able to sleep in any class I choose too. At lunch they have something that I love to eat, too. Then after school getting to hang out with all of my friends for however long we want to.

What was the last thing that made you laugh until you cried?

The last thing that made me laugh until I cried was after coming home from the theatres with Devon, Jordan, and Luc. We just got done watching "Captain Philips" and I have a major headache. After a long painful car ride to Jordan's, my headache just started to go away, we all started to get out of the car and Luc tried pushing himself out of the car with his hands. Then as he was pushing himself up, he slipped and landed flat on his face.
